

This information is provided by SurgyTec B.V. ("SurgyTec"). SurgyTec is a trademark of SurgyTec. SurgyTec is committed to protecting the privacy of its users. SurgyTec does not collect personal identifying information about its users except when requested from such users in the form of a site registration, CME course registration, email newsletter signup or under other similar circumstances. SurgyTec uses personal identifying information to improve the services to SurgyTec users and to identify these users as registered users. SurgyTec does not sell, trade and rent the personal identifying information of its users to third parties. Users may receive information from SurgyTec on new therapies; products and services that may help them better manage the care of patients or their practice. Any information provided by SurgyTec and/or its users is not an endorsement or opinion regarding any treatment option, product or service. Users will always have the ability at any time to opt out of receiving any future information. SurgyTec may offer its users online surveys and questionnaires that ask users for opinions and/or other information. Such surveys are completely voluntary. Any information submitted may be shared with other companies on an aggregated basis but SurgyTec will not provide such companies with any information regarding the identity of any individual user. Certain features provided by SurgyTec allow users to send e-mails to other people. In such cases, SurgyTec will attempt to send the information to the person designated by the user and will list the user's e-mail address as the sender. Email addresses captured in this manner will not be used commercially by SurgyTec for any reason except for the purpose of transmitting the requested email.

We collect from unregistered visitors.

Users can access portions of the SurgyTec site, without disclosing any personally identifiable information. We do track information provided to us by your browser, including the Web site you came from (known as the "referring URL"), the type of browser you use, the time and date of access, and other information that does not personally identify you.

We collect if you decide to register.

Users registering for services are asked to provide us with identifying information, such as name, contact information, and other identifying information. On our registration screen, we clearly label which information is required for registration, and which information is optional and may be given at your discretion. You will also be given a choice about whether or not you want to receive newsletter information. SurgyTec will ask for the User's consent before collecting personally identifiable information.
